- 1. Section B.2, Services and Prices, is hereby modified to add the following language:

"First authentication (first use) will be measured monthly. A total sum of initially assigned meaningless but unique numbers (MBUNs) will be used to tabulate the events used as the basis for successful first authentications."

- 2. Section C.4.2.8, User Tokens and/or Credentials, is hereby modified to add the following language:

"First authentication (first use) is defined as the receipt of a successful credential service provider (CSP) authentication assertion by the Connect.Gov Broker and the initial assigning of a meaningless but unique number (MBUN) by the Connect.Gov Broker. The date that both of these actions occur shall be the first authentication/first use date. The year-long unlimited use of a credential shall begin from the first authentication/first use date."

The system of record for Issuance of a credential shall be maintained by the Contractor. The system of record for first authentication/first use date of the credentials will be maintained by the Connect.Gov Broker. Upon receipt of the Contractor's Monthly Status Report (Section F.4), the Government will perform a review and will address any significant variation between the two records within 20 business days, as necessary. This review may include, but is not limited to, detailed system report(s) for both requests and responses for that month."

- 3. The above changes are made at no additional cost to the Government.
- 4. The estimated dollar value of the contract remains unchanged.
- 5. All other terms and conditions of the contract remain unchanged.
